

it is so instrumental to keep xm radio alive-in addition to the freedom of speech that is constitutionally protected, there should also be freedom in choosing the source of daily information - radio has had a glorious history in this country and technological advancements should not be a hinderance in ortecting firstamendment rights and the freedom of choice